

Stephen M. Dopp is the Vice President of International Business Development for Canadian Bank Note Company Limited (CBN) of Ottawa-- Canada's preeminent supplier of secure identity solutions, currency instruments and lottery services.

Mr. Dopp holds an Honours Bachelor of Arts degree from the University of Western Ontario, a Masters in Public Administration from Queen's University and a Masters in Business Administration from Universite Laval, where he was Richard J. Schmeelk Canada Fellow. He is a member of the Board of Directors of the Canadian Council for Africa and the Schmeelk Canada Foundation. In 2007, Mr. Dopp was made a Chevalier de l'Ordre National of Burkina Faso.

Canadian Bank Note has served customers in Algeria, Botswana, Burkina Faso, Chad, Ethiopia, Kenya, Mali, Tanzania, the Togolese Republic, Tunisia and Zambia. It introduced polymer banknotes to Africa through the Bank of Zambia and most recently furnished an electronic passport and issuing system with full PKI infrastructure to the Togolese Republic.